

Amendments in the Ordinance of B.Ed. 2yr. course regarding promoting the students from B.Ed 1st year to 2nd year 2019-20 onwards.

EXISTING	PROPOSED
A candidate who has failed in one subject only obtaining not less than 40% marks in the total of the papers in which he/she has passed, may be admitted to a Supplementary Examination and at the Next Annual Examination in that subject and if he/she passes in it, he/shall, if he/she has also obtained the aggregate marks prescribed in clause 11 above, be deemed to have passed the examination. If he/she fails to do so, or fails to appear in both the examinations, he/shall have to appear in all the subjects de novo. Provided the Academic Council may extend this period in the case of member of the regular Armed Forces, who is unable, owing to defence exigencies, to avail himself of a chance within this time.	To qualify for admission to 2nd year of the B.Ed. programme, the candidate must have pass 50% of total papers (including both theory papers and practical) of the 1st year. The Candidate who fails to obtain the requisite marks in clause 10 (of the existing ordinance) shall be required to re-appear in the examination in the concerned subject in the subsequent examination(s). Such candidates will not be required to repeat the internal examination (assessment). The candidate who fails in a course is allowed to re-appear only in external examination. The internal assessment marks of such candidates shall be carried forward.
